

RECENT EVENTS SNAPPED FOR THE TULSA WORLD READERS

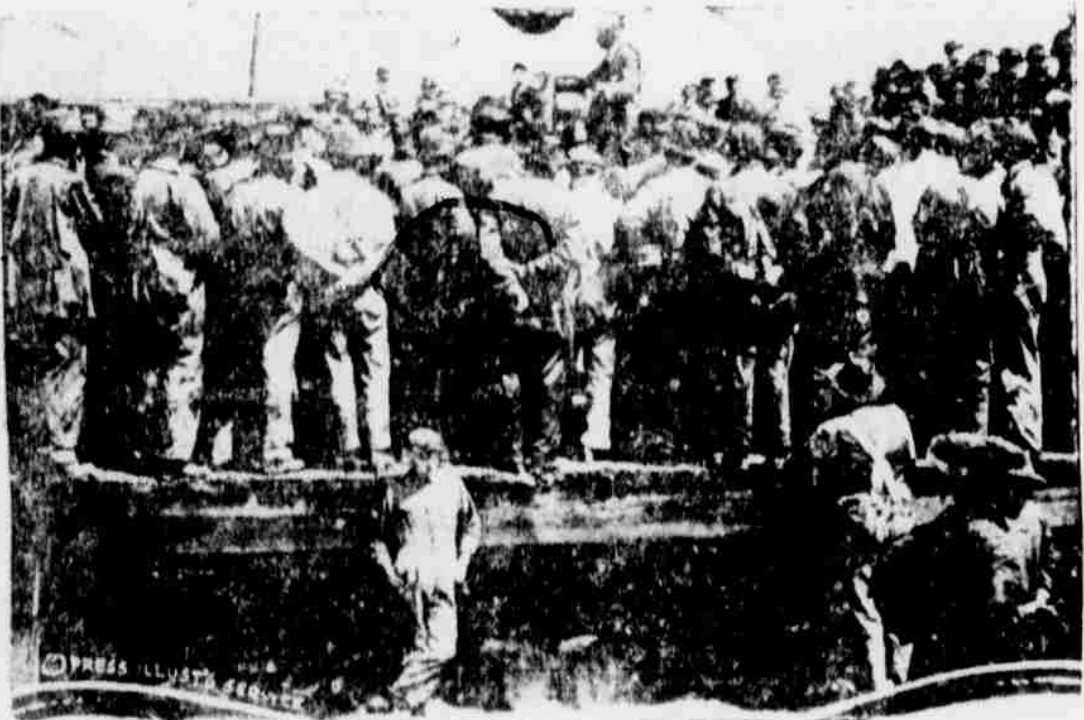

The hat is being used to save clothes this fall. You can wear a single suit of the headpiece is safe and secure—prevents loss of your velvet or plush.

The sand storm waves having the sea wall at Galveston. The giant wall constructed after the disaster years ago, is all that prevented a repetition of the great flood. The photograph is one of the most remarkable taken during the storm. A street can be seen just behind the wall.

This is one of the things the war did to Britain. But who is there to say it is not a beneficial thing. These pretty English nurses are very comfortable.

Organizers were busy last night in every section of the street and from downtown. This is a typical scene showing an organizer, addressing the workmen and urging them to join the ranks of the strike for their right against the steel industry.

Close up of the passenger section of the "Air Pullman." This giant Lawson plane is expected to cross the continent in two days and will accommodate in a 1919 trip. There are accommodations aboard for 34 passengers and the crew of two.

Mrs. Marguerite Charles of England and her two daughters at the end of a hike from Seattle to New York, a distance of 2,000 miles.

Handsome Jack, thought of Boston, prominent in several circles is helping out in the money market by acting as a battler. He was a champion, but he is not as his opponent's daughter.

Editor of New York, Baltimore and Washington are looking for Mrs. L. W. Kirk, Hight's, looking for a woman who has been kidnapped. (Continued)

A woman in a uniform was in the line of the 1919 trip. There are accommodations aboard for 34 passengers and the crew of two.

Miss B. Jones, thought of Boston, prominent in several circles is helping out in the money market by acting as a battler. He was a champion, but he is not as his opponent's daughter.

General Peckham and Vice President Marshall riding together in a carriage during the recent trip to Washington. The capital is a monster again. Is "Black Jack" here?

George Garton, Quinn, standing in the line of the 1919 trip. There are accommodations aboard for 34 passengers and the crew of two.

A woman in a uniform was in the line of the 1919 trip. There are accommodations aboard for 34 passengers and the crew of two.

Miss B. Jones, thought of Boston, prominent in several circles is helping out in the money market by acting as a battler. He was a champion, but he is not as his opponent's daughter.